SEN. JOHNNY ISAKSON DELIVERS PRESIDENT’S BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO 100 YEAR-OLD MAEBELL REEVES

Atlanta – U. S. Sen. Johnny Isakson of Georgia personally delivered a birthday greeting from President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama to 100 year-old, Maebell Albert Reeves at the Sadie G. Mays Health & Rehabilitation Center this week. Mrs. Reeves worked for the Isakson family for nearly 40 years and helped to raise Sen. Isakson and his two siblings in Atlanta, GA. Mrs. Reeves turned 100 years old on January 3, 2012 and celebrated with 193 family members and friends, including Sen. Isakson, at a party at the Harriett G. Darnell Senior Center last Saturday. When Sen. Isakson mentioned to President Obama that he would be attending the birthday celebration for Mrs. Reeves, Mr. Obama insisted on sending birthday greetings to Mrs. Reeves as well. The President’s letter noted, “Your story is an important thread in the fabric of America and as you reflect upon a century of memories, may your contributions and accomplishments fill you with joy and pride.” Commenting on her secret to long life, Mrs. Reeves said “Keep on doing the best you can and love everybody!”
