SADIE G. MAYS CENTER RECEIVES 2017 BEST OF ATLANTA AWARD

Atlanta -- Sadie G. Mays Health & Rehabilitation Center has been selected for the 2017 Best of Atlanta Award in the Nursing Home category by the Atlanta Award Program.

The Atlanta Award Program honors the achievements and accomplishments of local businesses throughout the Atlanta area. The organization identifies companies that have achieved exceptional marketing success in their local community and business category. These are local companies that enhance the positive image of small business through service to their customers and community.

“We are very proud to receive this award which validates the hard work and service that we provide to the ill and elderly residents of Metro Atlanta every day,” said Charles Robinson, Jr., President and CEO.

Sadie G. Mays is a 206-bed, skilled nursing facility located near the West End in NW Atlanta. Founded in 1947 by Sadie Gray Mays (Mrs. Benjamin E. Mays) the nonprofit organization is celebrating its 70th year in operation. It provides short term rehabilitation, long term nursing care, respite and hospice care for residents from throughout Metro Atlanta.

The 2017 Atlanta Award Program Winners were determined based on the information gathered both internally by the Atlanta Award Program and data provided by third parties. Recognition is given to those companies that have shown the ability to use best practices and implemented programs to generate competitive advantages and long-term value. The organization works exclusively with local business owners, trade groups, professional associations and other business advertising and marketing groups. Their mission is to recognize the small business community’s contributions to the U.S. economy. For more information, see www.sgmays.org and www.thebestawards.org.
